Office has received a report(s) of criminal activity alleging you have violated California Penal Code Section 476(a), "Passing a Bad Check." A conviction under this statute is punishable by up to one (1) year in the county jail, or in state prison, and up to $10,000 in fines. See page 3 for details on the party(s) initiating this allegation.

However, you may avoid a court appearance by participating in the Sonoma County District Attorney Diversion Program. The Diversion Program has two steps:

1. Pay all restitution on all reported checks, plus any administrative, returned item, and program fees.
2. Attend a Financial Accountability class.

Office will not initiate prosecution proceedings against individuals who comply with the Diversion Program.

Sonoma County District Attorney Bad Check Restitution Program Balance Due: $333.75

Failure to pay in full and schedule class within TEN (10) DAYS from the date of this Notice may result in your case being forwarded for criminal prosecution.

PLEASE CALL (888)692-1469 TO MAKE PAYMENT/SCHEDULE CLASS

Please have your case number ready: SNM29551928-0000

PAYMENTS ACCEPTED: CREDIT & DEBIT CARDS, WESTERN UNION, MONEY ORDERS, OR CASHIER'S CHECK

Diversion Program is an optional alternative to court proceedings. If you successfully comply, there will be no criminal, civil, or court record of this matter.

For additional information or if you believe you received this Notice in error, please see the reverse side.

Sincerely,

Jim J. Brockley
Deputy District Attorney
